

Novelis' Leslie Joyce Wins First-Ever Values Award From Best Practice Institute

ATLANTA, Oct. 11, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Novelis, the world leader in aluminum rolling and recycling, today announced that Senior Vice President and Chief People Officer Leslie Joyce was honored with the first-ever Values Award from the Best Practice Institute (BPI). The award was created to recognize talent management leaders who best exemplify BPI's core values.

"I can think of no one who deserves this award more than Leslie Joyce," said Phil Martens, Novelis President and Chief Executive Officer. "Leslie has served as a key partner in building the culture and organization that helped transform Novelis into the industry leader we are today."

The Best Practice Institute Values Award recognizes leaders who demonstrate transparency, positive feedback, leadership, appreciative practice, confidentiality, accountability and are viewed as a pioneer. Winners are selected by peers on the organization's Senior Executive Board, comprised of talent executives from some of the world's largest companies.

Best Practice Institute works with the world's top corporations, including executives and employees of many Fortune 500 corporations. To learn more, visit bestpracticeinstitute.org.
